For the annual OutdoorIllinois wild foods story, Executive Chef Sean Keeley prepared recipes submitted by readers, as well as a few of his own.

OutdoorIllinois readers submitted some of their favorite wild game recipes during 2006. From sensational bluegill burgers to mini pumpkins stuffed with wild duck risotto, each recipe tempted our palates with tooth-some, wild ingredients—and plenty of creative zest.

Naturally, we had to try every recipe. OutdoorIllinois extends a special thanks to the fabulous efforts of Executive Chef Sean Keeley of Springfield's Indigo restaurant. In a blazing display of culinary virtuosity, Keeley and his staff prepared nine wild dishes in a single afternoon, and even offered up a handful of Keeley's own wild creations. We think you'll love every bite.

Roasted Pumpkin Stuffed with Duck and Mushroom Risotto

Roasted Pumpkin Stuffed with Duck and Mushroom Risotto

By Brenda Rubenacker, Auburn

4-6 pie pumpkins (2 lbs. each) ½ lb. (2 sticks) unsalted butter
¼ cup sugar
2 tsp. grated orange zest
1½ tsp. ground cinnamon
1 tsp. salt
½ tsp. ground allspice
2 tbsp. vegetable oil
2 tsp. Emeril's Original Essence 1 recipe duck and mushroom risotto
½ cup freshly grated Parmigiano-Reggiano

Preheat oven to 350° F. With a sharp, heavy knife, carefully remove the top third of each pumpkin. Remove and discard the seeds and fibers from the insides and tops. In a small bowl, combine the sugar, zest, cinnamon, salt and allspice and mix well. Divide the mixture among the pumpkins and cover tightly with foil.

Bake the pumpkins for 1¼ hours, and the lids for about 1 hour. Remove the pumpkins and lids from the oven, uncover and bake until tender, about 15 minutes longer. Remove from the oven and let stand until cool enough to handle, then drain the butter from the pumpkins and reserve ½ cup for the risotto. Spoon the risotto into the cooked pumpkins and garnish with cheese.

Place the lids on the pumpkins and serve.

Duck and Mushroom Risotto

4-6 cups chicken stock
1 tbsp. salt
½ tsp. pepper
2 tbsp. unsalted butter
2 tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil ½ cup chopped shallots
1 tbsp. minced garlic
1 duck liver, reserved from the roast duck, chopped 4 cups (about ¾ lb.) sliced mixed wild mushrooms, such as oyster, hen-of-the-woods and morels 1½ cups arborio rice
1 cup dry red wine
2 cups shredded roast duck meat ½ cup butter reserved from the pumpkins

1 tsp. minced fresh thyme
1 tsp. minced fresh oregano
½ cup freshly grated Parmigiano-Reggiano

Bring the stock, salt and pepper to a simmer in a medium-heavy pot over medium-high heat. Reduce heat to low and cover to keep warm.

Melt the butter with the oil in a large saucepan over medium-high heat until foamy. Add the shallots, garlic and duck liver and cook, stirring for one minute. Add the mushrooms and cook, stirring until they give off their liquid, about three minutes. Add the rice, stirring constantly for two minutes to coat with oil and cook. Add the wine, stirring to deglaze the pan. Bring to a boil and cook until reduced by half, about four minutes. Reduce the heat to medium, add one cup of the hot stock and cook, stirring constantly until it has been absorbed. Continue adding more stock ½ cup at a time, stirring until the previous addition is nearly absorbed before adding more. Cook until the rice is tender, yet still slightly firm, for about 16-18 minutes total cooking time.

Fold in the pumpkin, butter, thyme and oregano, mixing well. Add the cheese and mix well. Serve hot.

 1 large yellow bell pepper, cubed
 1 large red bell pepper, cubed
 1 large onion, cubed
 1 lb. fresh mushrooms, stemmed

Marinade

1 cup apple juice
 2 cups cider vinegar
 2 cups (packed) dark brown sugar
 1 stick butter, quartered
 3 tbsp. Dijon mustard
 ¼ tsp. fresh ground pepper

Place all marinade ingredients into a non-reactive sauce pan and bring to boil over high heat, stirring steadily. Reduce heat to medium and simmer mixture for about 5 minutes.

Wild Turkey Kebabs

Place turkey breast cubes into glass or a non-reactive container or plastic bag and marinate for 8 to 24 hours in the refrigerator.

Preheat the grill. If using wooden skewers, place the skewers into warm water until ready for use. Prepare vegetables. Alternately thread turkey and vegetables onto skewers. Grill kebabs 18 to 20 minutes, pouring remaining marinade over kebabs, turning after first 10 minutes.

Great with grilled pineapple slices on the side. Mix 2 cups sugar and ¼ cup cinnamon in flat container. Open one 20-ounce can of pineapple in heavy syrup.
 Place each pineapple ring into mixture, covering both sides. Carefully remove and place rings on grill. Cook each side approximately 5 minutes. Serves 5.

Rotisserie Wood Duck with Stuffing

By Executive Chef Sean Keeley, Indigo restaurant, Springfield

1 red onion, thinly sliced ½ stick butter leaves from 3 or 4 sprigs of fresh thyme, minced
 ¼ cup minced parsley
 2 apples, cut to ½-inch dice
 1 pint fresh blueberries ½ cup chopped black walnuts zest and juice from 1 lemon
 ½ tsp. pepper
 ¾ tsp. kosher salt
 2 wood ducks, cleaned

Mix in a medium bowl lemon zest, juice and walnuts with spices and herbs then toss with apples and blueberries.
 Meanwhile, melt butter in a 10-inch skillet over medium heat and slowly cook onion until well browned. Let cool, then add to other ingredients and stir together.

Pre-heat grill rotisserie, or light charcoal and set up for indirect cooking. Put as much stuffing as you can get into two cleaned wood ducks. Place a drip pan in the center bottom of grill and skewer stuffed ducks onto rotisserie. Cook for 45 minutes to one hour, depending on size of ducks or cooking heat. Buttermilk mashed potatoes and any stock seasoned with soy sauce and a little butter tastes great with this dish.
